

In Texas, some children are considered more valuable than others

Under the new law*, Texas schools will have a $1,071 gap per student in how much money they have to spend to educate our children this next school year

$5,244
PER STUDENT

Poorest 100 school districts

$6,315
PER STUDENT

Richest 100 school districts

The 100 richest school districts will have $26,775 more to spend per classroom on teachers, curriculum, books, technology tools and supplies

$131,100
PER CLASSROOM

Poorest 100 school districts

$157,875
PER CLASSROOM

Richest 100 school districts

It doesn't have to be this way

www.idra.org

Intercultural Development Research Association • 5815 Callaghan Road, Suite 101 • San Antonio, Texas 78228 • 210-444-1710

September 2011. Figures based on average projected revenue per weighted student for 2011-12. Calculated by IDRA.
Data source: Legislative Budget Board and Equity Center, 2011.