

ARISE Pilar de Jovenes ~ Youth Pillar

Intergenerational Family Leadership
Liderazgo intergeneracional familiar

Youth Pillar Mentor Team: Amy Westphal, Mayra Vaquera, Lupita Perez, Maricruz Azuara

Goals/Metas: Youth leadership development/Liderazgo de jóvenes

We focus on youths from Pharr-San Juan-Alamo ISD (PSJA) and other surrounding districts.

Objectives: The students who participate will have goals and objectives in two areas: environment justice and education. At each center a group of students will plan projects, take action and evaluate their projects. This year we are planning for student projects to receive credit in school in partnership with PSJA

Roles...

Students: Volunteers between the ages of 14 to college age. (Mostly middle school and high school). The volunteers agree to work as a group and to achieve the goals of the projects.

Mentors: Each student group for each ARISE center has a young adult assigned to help guide, plan, carry out and evaluate the projects.

The key activities that the mentors will carry out are:

- Recruitment of young people to participate through their respective ARISE center.
- Planning – bringing youths together to plan their projects. A plan will include specific goals and objectives, the actions to be carried out, the questions to be answered and the results to be presented.
- Guiding- Bring the teams together to report on actions.
- Guiding- participating with the teams in their community activities.
- Reporting/Recording/Evaluating – bringing the teams together to check on progress, document activities in a variety of ways (written, photos, power-point presentations and art).
- Presentations – each team will prepare presentations to ARISE groups at the end of their project's cycle. They will also prepare individual or small team presentations for their respective schools as part of the PSJA Student Project Presentations at the end of the school year.
