About the Institute. This annual gathering offers families, school district personnel and community groups from across Texas the opportunity to network, get resources and information, to receive training and bilingual materials on IDRA's nationally-recognized research-based model for parent leadership in education. This institute is highly interactive and participatory. Parents are lead presenters throughout the Institute.

Topics include:

- Advocacy at the school district level
- Bilingual/ESL education
- College access
- Content area instruction
- Dropout prevention
- Early childhood education
- High school graduation
- IDRA OurSchool Data Portal
- School funding issues
- Literacy
- Special Education
- Title I requirements

There will be a special presentation on literacy, diversity and advocacy by community and elected officials.
