

IDRA EAC-South

Family Engagement Online Assistance Package

Few people question the value of parents being involved in schools. But many school leaders labor with traditional strategies that have little meaning or success. This IDRA EAC-South Family Engagement Web-based Technical Assistance Package is designed to provide educators tools for embracing what, for many, is a new vision for engaging with families and community members.

This free web-based package includes five chapters, each with a video and supporting resources, infographics, articles & podcasts.

Chapter 1

Introduction to Family Leadership in Education

Get an overview of family leadership in education and its benefits.

5:15 min.

Chapter 2

Authentic Outreach

See how authentic family outreach differs from traditional ideas of parent outreach. And get specific strategies for implementing authentic outreach.

4:30 min.

Chapter 3

The Six Principles of Family Engagement

Explore the six principles of creating meaningful family leadership in education.

4:52 min.

Chapter 4

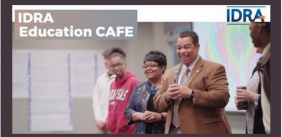

School Strategies for Family Engagement

Get some strategies for schools that support family leadership in education which is the key path for families to influence policy and practice.

5:43 min.

Chapter 5

Education CAFE Overview

Find out how Education CAFEs work and hear from members on how it has helped them and their schools.

3:08 min.

<https://idra.news/webFamEngage>

The IDRA EAC-South is the equity assistance center that provides free or low-cost technical assistance to schools in the U.S. South. With roots in the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the four federally-funded equity assistance centers help school districts build capacity to confront educational problems occasioned by race, national origin, sex and gender, and religion.

October 2019

www.idra.org

facebook.com/IDRAed

@IDRAedu

Intercultural Development Research Association • 5815 Callaghan Road, Suite 101 • San Antonio, Texas 78228 • 210-444-1710

