

Remote Learning Experience Survey

Questions for secondary students regarding your digital divide-related experience during remote learning that can inform our school's digital inclusion efforts going forward.

Student Questions

Describe your experience as a student through remote learning during the pandemic.

What were the pros and cons of remote learning for you?

What were the pros and cons of remote learning for you peers?

What were the biggest challenges for you to stay engaged with schoolwork during remote learning?

Did you or your family members have connectivity issues that impacted your school work?

What strategies did teachers use in their instruction that you found most useful for you to understand course material?

What strategies did teachers use that helped you stay engaged in your learning?

How did your school provide digital resources, including devices and user information?

How did your school support you beyond providing devices and user information to navigate these resources?

Describe any other related stressors brought forth by the pandemic or remote online learning that affected your engagement or success in your learning.

Remote Learning Experience Survey

Questions for families regarding your digital divide-related experience during remote learning that can inform our school's digital inclusion efforts going forward.

Family Questions

How many devices are available for school or work use in your household?

What has your school done to bring connectivity to your household?

How did connectivity issues, if any, for you and your family impact your student's school work?

How did your child's school or teachers communicate with you during the pandemic?

How has that communication changed since students went back to in-person learning?

How could your child's school better reach out to you for input?

What topics would you most like to be able to influence for your child's school or district?

Remote Learning Experience Survey

Questions for teachers regarding your digital divide-related experience during remote learning that can inform our school's digital inclusion efforts going forward.

Teacher Questions

How did remote learning affect your students' engagement?

How did the digital divide make connecting with your students more challenging?

What strategies did you use in your instruction delivery or communication with students to support their learning?

What strategies did you use in your instruction delivery or communication with students and families to promote student engagement?

How did connectivity issues for you or your family members impact your work?
