

IDRA Policy Priorities – Georgia Legislative Session 2024

Ensure Fair Funding for All Students by fully funding the Quality Basic Education Formula (QBE), expanding the QBE formula to include additional funding for students living in poverty, and by opposing all efforts to divert public funding to private education institutions, especially through vouchers.

Mikayla Arciaga, M.A.Ed.
Georgia Advocacy Director
Fulton County
mikayla.arciaga@idra.org

End Harmful Discipline by commissioning a school discipline study committee, expanding pre-suspension and expulsion MTSS availability to all students, and prohibiting corporal punishment.

Terrence Wilson, J.D.
Regional Policy and Community Engagement Director
Troup County
terrence.wilson@idra.org

Promote Culturally Sustaining Schools that Welcome and Serve all Students by ensuring that students receive a culturally-responsive and sustaining education that emphasizes the contributions and perspectives of historically marginalized communities.

Jordan Madden
Regional Policy Intern
Clayton County
jordan.madden@idra.org
